Existence results for variational models in fracture mechanics

G. Dal Maso

The talk will present some recent existence results for the variational model of crack growth in brittle materials proposed by Francfort and Marigo. These results, obtained in collaboration with Francfort and Toader, deal with the n-dimensional case, with a quasiconvex bulk energy and with time dependent prescribed boundary deformations and time dependent applied loads.