Jennings Family
Global Mathematics Fund

Application Spring 2018
Scholarship Background

Carnegie Mellon University is proud to announce a gift from Larry E. Jennings Jr. and Katherine Jennings to establish the Jennings Family Global Mathematics Fund. Through this gift the donors acknowledge both the value of the undergraduate mathematics degree, which has a versatile program that focuses on problem solving and rigorous thinking and thereby prepares students for success in a wide range of careers, and the importance of the experiences afforded by travel abroad.

Larry Jennings received his Bachelor of Science degree in mathematics and economics from the Mellon College of Science in 1984 and his master’s degree from the Tepper School of Business in 1987 where he concentrated in finance and strategy. Larry and Katherine have a strong sense of service and commitment to their community and have been active with, and supportive of, many community endeavors in Baltimore.

The fund is intended to complement the Jennings Family Brave Companions Fund, established in 2009, as an expanded opportunity for students who are majoring in mathematics to travel internationally.

Eligibility Requirements

• Open to mathematics majors and students pursuing an additional major in mathematics
• Full-time student status for two terms
• Baccalaureate degree in progress
• Will return to Carnegie Mellon as a full time student in the fall semester following the summer abroad experience

Preference is given to students with ONE or more of the following:

• U.S. citizen or permanent resident
• Students who have overcome obstacles such as socioeconomic or educational disadvantage or disabilities
• Students who have demonstrated a commitment to the advancement of groups that are historically underrepresented at the University, including African Americans, Native Americans or Latinos
• Students who are the first generation in their family to attend college
• Students with demonstrated financial need
• Students who have not previously had a study or travel abroad experience
Brave Companions’ Core Components

- Abroad experience of at least 4 weeks (28 days or more) in the summer after sophomore or junior year.
- If a research project is completed, awardees present at the annual research symposium, Meeting of the Minds, May 2019
- Awardees submit a detailed Experience Report by October 1 on CD (including pictures, reflections of the experience and descriptions), submitted to the URO, 531 Warner Hall to be shared with the donor and other students and faculty
- Awardees participate in various events sponsored by the Office of International Education (OIE) and the Undergraduate Research Office (URO)
- Awardees sign a Letter of Agreement and submit it to the URO, 531 Warner Hall
