

A characterization of models in which mutual fund theorem holds

Mihai Sirbu, Columbia University

January 22, 2007

We characterize financial models, where mutual fund theorem holds in terms of the completeness of the numeraire portfolio. The characterization works for general semimartingale models, not only in the Brownian Motion case.